

EconomiX – Université Paris Ouest Nanterre La Défense

EconomiX is a research center in economics operated by the CNRS (National Centre for Scientific Research) and the University of Paris Ouest Nanterre La Défense. It combines theoretical and applied research in various fields of economics.

With more than 260 persons among whom 110 researchers, 10 administrative and technical staffs, 140 PhD students, EconomiX is one of the four major units of research and education in the field in the Paris region.

Research activities at EconomiX are structured around six complementary axes:

- * Law, Institutions and Regulation
- * Firms, Inequalities and Social Policies
- * Sustainable Development, Environment and Public Policy
- * International Macroeconomics and Financial Econometrics
- * Money, Finance and Intermediation
- * History and Theoretical Economics

EconomiX undertakes its research and co-operative relationships by developing partnerships with other academic institutions, public authorities (at the regional, national and European levels), and businesses.

The members of EconomiX are very active in the department of Economics, Management, Mathematics, Computer Science (SEGMI) of the University and they are implicated in many partnerships.

Within the University of Paris Ouest Nanterre la Défense, the members of EconomiX are involved in transdisciplinary cooperations, in particular with researchers in law, management, sociology and history.

EconomiX is a partner of the doctoral School « Economics, Organization, Society », co-accredited with the Ecole des Mines de Paris, in partnership with ESSEC, ESCP and the Ecole Polytechnique.
